banners, bringing Ladies and Gentlemen. Several pairs of Oxen were sold at from $150 to $200. We noticed Potatoes weighing two pounds; Pumpkins, sixty; Beets, 17: Squashes 2 feet long, 4 feet round; Apples large as small pumpkins, &c, &c.

A great multitude of people were present, and all went well. The Wilmington Brass Band discoursed fine music throughout the day. VOLNEY FORBES, Secretary.

The Germania, recently arrived at New York from Havre, brought a very valuable lot of Merino rams, selected in France by J. A. Taintor of Hartford. One of them was from the celebrated flock of M. Cugnot; another cost $500, and two others, from the flock of M. Gilbert, cost $400 each. Mr. Tainter also purchased fifteen fine breeding rams for Mr. Bingham of Vermont, at very high prices. Five beautiful Alderny heifers, from the best blood on the island, came in the same ship. Near two hundred thousand dollars have been expended the past summer in the importation of choice breeds of animals from Europe.
